

Our Communities, Our Water

Connecting the Local and the Global

September 22-24

University of Massachusetts / Amherst – Campus Center

A gathering of New England/New York/Eastern Canadian community activists, students and water workers

This event will feature workshops, speakers, trainings, displays, and more!

Meeting Goals:

- To connect grassroots activists with public water workers to learn from each other and support each other
- To protect our communities from corporate privatization of our water & sewer services
- To protect our springs and groundwater from being depleted by corporations so they can profit from selling bottled water or exporting bulk water
- To join with a growing global movement on the right to water for people and nature and to understand the role of global institutions in denying this right
- To map out clear action plans for future collaboration/s and build a regional support network

Event Project Partners

- Massachusetts Global Action
- North American Alliance for Fair Employment
- Alliance for Democracy
- Food & Water Watch
- New England Grassroots Environmental Fund
- UUSC (Unitarian Universalist Service Committee)
- Polaris Institute
