

Mass Global Action

Basav Sen on the

IMF/World Bank

A Critical Update on the World's Loan Sharks

Challenging Corporate Power Building Democratic Alternatives

33 Harrison Ave, 4th floor
Boston, MA 02111

Phone: 617-338-9966
Fax: 671-426-7684

E-mail: info@massglobalaction.org

Thursday, September 15, 2005, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

33 Harrison Ave, 3rd floor, Chinatown (Boston)

light meal & refreshments served, small donation advised

Live Music featuring the Murder Elite

Event Co-sponsors:
BankBusters
and the North American Alliance for Fair Employment

Basav Sen works with the Mobilization for Global Justice in Washington, D.C. He has been a leader of the World Bank Bonds Boycott campaign, which pressured the World Bank to change its lending policies. Basav is a native of India, and has been involved in struggles for justice for more than a decade, with a particular emphasis on fighting corporate globalization, the IMF, and World Bank. He also has experience in immigrants' rights struggles, housing justice struggles, community media, & political street theater.